JULY MAGAZINE PREVIEW

Our love of North Dakota's small towns and rural communities is on full display in July's magazine.

Rural people are energizing their communities through rural development projects, tackling issues like housing, day care and food access. North Dakota Living visits Edgeley, where a group of friends have opened Butcher's Edge, a meat processing facility.

Community celebrations are a trademark of North Dakota summer. Find out what's in store for this year's N.D. State Fair and learn of events happening across the state this summer.
